PROBATION

You are hereby sentenced to probation for a term of:

five (5) years, which shall consist of a six-month custody sentence, with the first two months being served in imprisonment and the next four months being served in home confinement. The periods of imprisonment and home confinement shall be included within the term of probation imposed by the Court (see Special Conditions of Supervision).

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1.	You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2.	You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3.	You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
	The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.	You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5.	You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6.	You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
7.	You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (check if applicable)
8.	You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.

9. If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

10. You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised

CASE NUMBER: 3:15-00029

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall report to the designated institution to begin service of the two-month term of imprisonment, which is a component of the five-year term of probation, on Monday, June 5, 2017, before 2:00 p.m.
- 2. After completion of the two-month term of imprisonment, the defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a four-month program of home confinement. The Defendant shall abide by all rules and requirements as directed by the United States Probation Office. The Defendant is restricted to her residence at all times except for special activities approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Officer, such as employment; education; religious services; medical or mental health treatment; caretaker responsibilities for her mother; household chores; or other activities as pre-approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. Unless specifically approved by the probation officer, Defendant shall remain at home between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.
- 3. The defendant is prohibited from owning, carrying or possessing firearms, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.
- 4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the United States Probation Office.
- 5. The defendant shall pay the Internal Revenue Service $459,469 toward her tax liability. Payments shall be submitted to the Clerk, United States District Court, 801 Broadway, Room 800, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, and forwarded to the Internal Revenue Service RACS, Attention: Mail Stop 6261 (Restitution), 333 W. Pershing Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri 64108. Restitution is due immediately. The defendant shall pay the restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the defendant's gross monthly income. No interest shall accrue as long as the defendant remains in compliance with the payment schedule ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the Court and United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.
- 6. The defendant shall timely file any income tax returns as required by law and shall provide a copy of all returns, with schedules attached, to the probation office within 5 days of filing.
- 7. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the cost for mental health treatment if the United States Probation Office determines the defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
- 8. The defendant shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
- 9. The defendant shall be prohibited from assisting any other person, whether a fee is involved or not, in preparing any tax returns or filings.
- 10. The defendant shall not make any major purchases or give gifts to any individual over $100, other than for household expenses, without first reporting it to the probation officer.
- 11. The defendant shall assume all responsibilities as a parent to her children and as a caregiver to her mother.
- 12. At the discretion of the United States Probation Office and after the six-month custody sentence is completed, Defendant may be required to work in any program the probation officer feels appropriate where Defendant will have the opportunity to talk to others in a similar situation about committing the type of offense she has committed.
